

Arts Volunteering opportunity

An exciting new pop-up exhibition supported by Cambridge Arts Society is seeking interested members to volunteer their help during the exhibition

The Flowers Stand Silently, Witnessing is a group exhibition being presented at Cambridge Artworks, 5 Green's Road, from 15–18 October 2026, curated by Holly Rose O'Brien. Bringing together the work of artists Maisy Akroyd, Sid White Jones and Theo Panagopoulos, the exhibition explores how we remember, commemorate and reconcile with the past through moving image, photography and printmaking.

The exhibition will be accompanied by an artist-in-conversation event and a family cyanotype workshop across the weekend.

Exhibition Schedule:

15 October

10:00–17:00 – Exhibition install

17:00–20:00 – Exhibition opening and screening

16 October

10:00–17:00 – Exhibition open to the public

18:00 – In conversation event

17 October

10:00–17:00 – Exhibition open to the public

11:00–14:00 – Family workshop in exhibition space

18 October

10:00–16:00 – Exhibition open to the public

16:00 – Deinstall

You are invited to volunteer during the weekend. If you are interested in helping, or for more information, please contact Holly at hollyobrienarts@gmail.com.
