

Special Interest Day - Thursday, 23 November 2023 10 am until 3 pm.
Dr Susan Owens - The Spirit of Place: Artists and the British Landscape.
Churchill College, CB3 0DS

Artists have drawn and painted the British landscape for over a thousand years. Yet each generation has framed the view in a different way. Some painters have imagined the landscape poetically while others have tried to express how it actually looked under changeable skies. There have been times for wild, mountainous scenery and times for views of gentle pastures. Today, the effects of the climate crisis are setting new challenges for artists. This three lecture study day - based on fascinating original research for Susan's book Spirit of Place: Artists, Writers and the British Landscape (Thames & Hudson, 2020) - offers us a unique opportunity to share an in-depth look at the long history of landscape art in Britain.

For more information on each of the three lectures comprising the day please visit The Arts Society Cambridge website - Special Interest - future events.
